The man who is perpetually hesitating as to which of the two things he will do first, will do neither. The man who resolves, but suffers his resolution to be changed by the first counter suggestion of a friend – who fluctuates from opinion to opinion and from plan to plan can never accomplish anything great or useful. Instead of being progressive in anything he will be at best stationary, and more probably retrograde in all he does. The man, who first consults wisely, then resolves firmly and then carries out his purpose with inflexible perseverance, undismayed by those petty difficulties which frighten a weaker spirit, can advance to any eminence .
